Andrews Indicted for Perjury Again

Five Counts Specified by Grand Jury

Dean A. Andrews Jr., once indicted for perjury in Kennedy assassination probe testimony, was reindicted Wednesday by the Orleans Parish Grand Jury for the same perjury charge and five counts were specified.

Additionally, the jury reindicted Edgar Labat and Clifton A. Poret for the 1950 rape of a white woman. The Supreme Court Monday refused to hear a Louisiana appeal from a ruling by the Fifth Circuit Court of Appeals, which reversed the men's convictions.

Labat was convicted in 1953 for the rape of a white woman in a dark alley in New Orleans in 1950. Poret was convicted of aiding and abetting the rape.

The pair has been on death row at Angola for 14 years.

Testimony by Andrews cenered around whether he could ositively identify Clay L. Shaw, prominent New Orleans businessman, as Clay Bertrand who, Andrews told the Warren Commission, called him November, 1963, and asked him to defend the accused killer of President John F. Kennedy, Lee Harvey Oswald. This move on the part of the district attorney's office apparently resulted from the fact that Andrews' attorneys questioned the first indictment in court, alleging that the indictment did not conform to the proper section of the Louisiana Criminal Code.

Here is the indictment:
"The Grand Jurors of the State of Louisiana, duly empaneled and sworn in and for the body of the parish of Orleans, in the name and by the authority of the said state, upon their oath, present that one Dean A. Andrews Jr., late of the parish of Orleans, on the 16th day of March in the year of Our Lord, 1967, with force and arms in the parish of Orleans aforesaid, and within the jurisdiction of the Criminal District Court for the Parish of Orleans, appeared as a witness and committed perjury by testifying as follows:

"Question by Grand Juror:
"Q. Would you state positively that Clay Shaw and Clay Bertrand, having (seen) Clay Shaw recently, were not the same seone?

"A. I could not do it — my personal opinion, if you are interested, in (sic) I'll give to

"Q. All right, we are interested in your personal opinion.
GIVES NO OPINION

"A. I can't connect the two — I can't say he is and I can't say he ain't — there is no way in my mind that I can connect the two - but if you asked me under oath I can't give you my personal opinion — I just have to say there is no way in the world I can connect the two. The only difference - I would have to go along with Dick and Mumu (apparently referring to two assistant district attorneys) - Cause I found out there is a difference - you know on the phone -there is a ten-second delay at a frequency or something in the transmission of the voices."

"Question by Richard Burnes, assistant district attorney:

"Q. If you were to have a physical description in your mind of Clay Bertrand regard to height and general build and if you were to put a physical description of Clay Shaw, whom I believe you have seen on TV is that correct?

"A. Yes.
"Q. Is there anything grossly disproportionate about the general description in regard to height of the two men?
"A. He is taller.

"Q. Who is taller? "A. Clay Shaw.

"Q. How much? "A. I don't know.

"Q. Well, can't you give an approximation?

"A. An approximation. How tall is Clay Shaw! I don't know how tall Clay Shaw is.

"Q. You must have some idea about how much taller he would be than Clay Shaw.

"A. I see him on TV—He is a tall cat—I don't believe the person I know as Clay Bertrand is as tall as him. I don't know. I can't say yes, and I can't say no. As God is my judge. I have to go back to the same thing to go back to the same thing I am telling you—I go to a fag wedding presention and he is standing up and he is well dressed—I don't measure the guy then, I don't measure him now. I don't even think about the guy Just like you go to any wedding reception, you mingle, you drink, you talk. I had no occasion to—to have this guy impress me.

"Q. Mr. Andrews, you stated that Clay Shaw is taller.

"A. Well, I am assuming that, I don't know. I see him tower over people when they put the TV camera on him, so I figure he is a tall cat.

"Q. About how much taller would you say he is?

"A. The general build is the same—you are asking me for leight—I can't tell you. "Q. Well, you can tell me whether it's closer to one inch or closer to eight inches, can't you?

"A. How can I tell you that? "Q. Well, is he closer to four inches? Is he as much as a foot taller?

"A. No.
"Q. Is he as much as half a foot taller?

"A. You see, man, you are like all them people, you push and push for something—that's how I got two descriptions in here before. I don't know. I really, honestly don't know. All I know is Clay Bertrand, the one I know, has a voice I know as an individual—now this was 64, seven years later when i up and ran out of the place— is sitting down and I told them '58_I get in all kinds of incon-Sistencies, I can't give you what you want in relationship to height, except the man is in my opinion that I know as Clay Bertrand is 6'1, 6'2, in that area.

"Question by Richard Burnes, assistant district attorney:

"A. I get the impression you all want me to identify Clay Shaw as Clay Bertrand—I'll be honest with you that is the impression I get— "Q. Well?

"A. And I can't. I can't say ne is and I can't say he ain't.
"Q. You can't say he is and

"Q. You can't say he you can't say he ain't? "A. Right.

"Q. And that is what you told us in our office?

"A. Right. And that is what I am telling you now. I cannot say positively, under oath, that he is Clay Bertrand or he is not. Even with me listening to the guy's voice on the phone, the voice I recall is somewhat simlar to this cat's voice, but his voice has overtones just like fumu said, the voice I recall n the phone as Clay Bertrand's s a deep, cultured, well-educated voice—he don't talk like me, he used the King's English. Everybody thinks I am holding something back. They think I have the key to who killed Kendal it with the control of the contr nedy-I wish I did I'd sell it and make a million dollars ...

"Which testimony and statements enumerated above, the said Dean A. Andrews Jr. then and there well knew were false and untrue and which were related to matters material to the issue and question under investigation: to wit: A conspiracy to murder John F. Kennedy, contrary to the form of statue of the state of Louisiana in such cases made and provided and against the peace and dignity of the same.

SECOND COUNT:

"Following is another series of testimony:

"Question by grand juror:

"Q. Mr. Andrews, I undertood you to say earlier that ou would like to find Clay ertrand?

"A. Well, I think everybody puld like to find him—the emhasis placed on him he aprently has some connection ith . . . that I don't associate at all with this case.

"Q. If you would like to find him, how would you know it was Clay Bertrand when you found him?

"A. Well, you've got me.—I couldn't say yes, I couldn't—I'd have to go on instinct.

"Q. Yet, when you went looking for Clay Bertrand in the bar, and this man jumped up and ran out, you said that this was Clay Bertrand?

"A. No, I said a man who I thought was Clay Bertrand, who appeared to be Clay Bertrand

—I forget the word choice that I used—got up and ran, stepped out the side door and left the scene.

"Q. So you mean to say that if you walked into Clay Bertrand right now you wouldn't know him?

'LIKE HOLY GRAIL'

"A. Instinct only. I'd really be as baffled as I am now. He is like the Holy Grail to me, you know you can see it and you never get it. The picture I get from looking at you — I guess in three or four days I could describe you—it's that kind of problem. The interest and emphasis placed on Clay Bertrand I have never associated with the man. In other words, the emphasis placed today and at the time I met this man the first time I saw him, the second time I saw him, in the transactions I have had with him — I never placed emphasis.

Q. When you told the Warren Commission there were three people you wanted to find and he was one of them, did you think at that time that if you found him you could have rec-ognized him at the time?

A. I would have to say you are right, I would doubt if I could, but I would have tried. Because it was my impression . . . that they felt that this man played an important part in its value or perspective in the overall investigation of Oswald, but he never guaranteed nothing for Oswald. Nobody ever asked me that—he had nothing to do with Oswald as far as I know.

Q. Did Clay Bertrand, the voice on the phone, guarantee payment for anyone after the time of the assassination?

A. I ain't never seen nor heard from him since . . ."
